

MURDERER'S ESCAPE

DETAINED BY WOMAN

Tries to Effect Release of John H. Wood.

FASCINATED BY CRIMINAL

Jailer She Tries to Bribe Reveals Plan to Warden—Wife of Official.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—The wife of an official of Eldorado, having become fascinated with John H. Woods, the notorious convict who led the famous Folsom prison break a few months ago, it has been found, entered into a conspiracy to free the murderer, now awaiting the death sentence.

Through a guard, who pretended to enter into the plot, she furnished money with which to purchase revolvers and nitroglycerine to facilitate the murderer's escape and was to have raised $5,000 with which to pay the guard for his work. The guard handed the letters to Warden Yell of the Folsom prison and all the details of the scheme have been disclosed to him.

The plan of escape involved the blowing up of the gate of the prison if necessary. The woman seemed completely infatuated with Woods, whom she saw for the first time during his trial for the murder of one of his pursuers at the time he broke from prison. She smoked upon him as a hero, and to a party in the stage plot fascinated her to the point where she forgot her husband and everything else a woman should hold dear.

ADVERTISERS ALLOWED TO USE THIS CHURCH

Milwaukee Pastor Adopts New Scheme to Raise Money for Repairs to His Edifice.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 15.—The Rev. W. Shaw, pastor of the North Side Congregational Church, has started a new plan of securing money with which to make needed repairs and improvements in his church.

Believing that advertising is legitimate, he has made arrangements with business men whereby they are to have advertising privileges in his church in return for donations.

Mr. Shaw says he is not going to turn the house of the Lord into a market place, but simply allow the names of contributors to be placed on a tablet.

In addition to securing donations, Mr. Shaw proposes to offer advertising space to such merchants as may guarantee to increase the church attendance for a specified number of Sundays.

Mr. Shaw expects that this plan will largely increase his congregation, and he counts on the merits of the Gospel to convert the strangers who may come to see the church under the new conditions.

ROSEBURY, Ore., July 15.—Eloping with William Ford, a married man, Emily Board, sixteen years old, leaped to death with him in the waters of Mill Creek when pursuing party was believed to be upon them. The last of the girl upon the bank with a hastily scrawled note, pleading for forgiveness, gave a clue which led to the discovery of the bodies.
